

STEPSON SHOT TO KILL HER, SAYS MRS. CHARLOT

Taken to Mountains on Father's Order to Shoot Her,
She Charges.

HUSBAND IN BIG MINE CO.

Trunks Are Held for $200 by Hotel, and He Goes to Ludlow Street Jail for $80 Alimony Arrears.

The difficulty which Alphonse Charles Charlot, a mining man, has been experiencing in his efforts to leave the Hotel Seymour, where he has been a patron, will not bother him for a while. Deputy Sheriff John P. Gilmore, acting under the instructions of Sheriff Harbinger, found a way out for Charlot yesterday by placing him under arrest. The charge was contempt of court for failure to pay Mrs.
Irene Melbourne Charlot alimony in her suit for separation.

Only recently this latest acquisition to Warden "Gene" Johnson's Alimony Club, in Ludlow street jail, was the president of the Charlot Smelters and Mines Company, capitalized at $10,000,000 and operating in Mexico. He still looked the part yesterday when he was taken to jail.

Charlot made the other members of the club sit up and take notice of his furnished overcoat and other details of his careful sartorial make-up. The amount for which the $10,000,000 mine owner was arrested is $80—two weeks' alimony—but he said that he is unable to pay it, and he blames his wife for that.

Charlot wanted to leave the Hotel Seymour for less expensive quarters, but the hotel management was holding his trunks as security for $300 that he owed. The trunks are still at the hotel. As for his board and lodging, that item will be taken care of by Warden Johnson for a time.
Charlot said, because of the notoriety from his wife's suit, he had been unable to reorganize the El Triunfo Mining Company. He also denied the statement of Mrs. Charlot that he had been leading a riotous life and had been buying champagne for other women. Mrs. Charlot said that for some time her husband had been drawing $1,000 a month.

Mrs. Charlot was seventeen years old when she married Charlot in Jersey City in 1908. He was fifty-five years old. It was his second marriage, and Mrs. Char-lot said in her suit for separation on the ground of cruelty, which has not yet come to trial, that while in Mexico he threatened to kill her, and actually ordered his twenty-year-old son by his first marriage to take Mrs. Charlot up in the mountains and shoot her.

The wife said that one shot was fired at her, but did not hit her. Mrs. Charlot also alleged in her action that her husband put her out of their home and then pawned her jewelry for $500.

Charlot, in his answer to the separation suit, said that he and his wife used to live at the Waldorf and that he spent many thousands of dollars on her. He said that she had 50,000 shares in his mining company, which he said had a value of $1 each. Charlot blamed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Shannon, for most of his domestic troubles. She was opposed to the marriage, said Charlot, and had made trouble for him ever since.

Mrs. Shannon also served her son-in-law with the order to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court for not paying the two weeks' alimony. Several process servers had tried to reach Charlot at the Hotel Seymour, but without result. Then Mrs. Shannon undertook to serve the order—and she did.

VALUES WIFE AT $50,000

W. R. Crawford Sues H. D.
Chater.

William R. Crawford, a civil engineer, filed suit yesterday for $50,000 damages against Henry D. Chater, head of the firm of Chater & Edey, No. 25 Wall street.
Crawford charges that the broker has alienated the affection of his wife.

Crawford charges that frequent absences from the city necessitated by business gave Chater opportunity for association with Mrs. Crawford, and that Chater spent money lavishly upon her or gave it to her outright. This resulted, Crawford declared, in his wife's leaving home to associate with Chater "to the detriment of the plaintiff and without his knowledge or consent."

The complaint recites that the Craw-fords were married on Christmas Day, 1906, and that Mrs. Crawford was perfectly satisfied with her husband's position in life until she met Chater. She continued to live at home, Crawford says, until December 11, when he alleges she went with Chater.

COMFORT FOR KLEPPISCHES

Mother, After 37 Years, and Two Children Change Names.

An order signed by Justice Giegerich yesterday made a mother, son and daughter more comfortable. The court order gave permission to Mrs. Lena Louise Kleppisch, Victoria Marie and George H.
O., all of No. 514 West 114th street, to change their names to Comfort.

Mrs. Kleppisch, who is a native of Canada, was formerly the wife of Martin Luther Kleppisch, of Baltimore, whom she married there in 1876 and divorced in 1898. Now Mrs. Kleppisch explained that a change of name would be a comfort to her after she had borne Kleppisch for thirty-seven years. She is an agent for a book publisher, and her name was a great disadvantage to her in business.
